

Testosterone

words and music by

Hal Bruni

(Intro)

(verse 1)

Had enough of the Bachelor and Sex in the City

What them shows done to me is a dog gone pity

If I drink a Cosmo one more time, I'm gonna lose my mind

Think that I'm in serious need

Of some Moonshiners and Duck Dynasty

(chorus)

So tonight

I'm gonna burn it up, Gonna turn it on

Play some old Hank and Skynryd songs

Get a little wild

Redneck style

Light a little fire when the sun goes down

Way back in the woods far away from town

Shoot my gun til the citified is gone

Yeah, Turn up the Testosterone

(2nd verse)

It's a crying shame cause it ain't just me

It's happened to most every other man I see

This modern worlds making us a little sissified
